München, Biblion Verlag 2006, Pb., 167 S., Bibl. Place-names of the Eastern Balkans in Ptolemy's Geography.

ISBN 3-932331-57-5, EUR 25,60

Monografija posvjaščena analizu geografičeskich nazvanij Frakii i Nižnej Mezii, izvestnyh po "Geografičeskomu rukovodstvu" Klavdija Ptolemeja. V knige sdelana popytka sistematiizirovat' rezul'taty lingvističeskich issledovanij vostočnobalkanskogo toponimičeskogo landšafta ptolemeevskoj "Geografii". Rassmatrivajutsja nazvanija paleobalkanskogo proischoždenija, a takže grečeskie, latinskie, iranske i kel'tskie toponimy.

The book offers an analysis of geographical names in Thrace and Lower Moesia which are attested in the Geography of Ptolemy. The author attempts at summarizing the results of linguistic research of the Eastern Balkan toponymic landscape as it is preserved in the ptolomaic text. An alphabetically arranged glossary discusses the place-names of Paleobalkan origins, as well as Latin, Greek, Iranian and Celtic traces in the toponymy of this area; each entry contains condensed information on the history and attestations of the discussed geographical object.
